STATE SEEKS TO SHOW UNION'S HAND IN THE MURDER OF KING

CANON CITY, Colo., Dec. 17.—The state today introduced evidence in the trial of seven soldiers charged with the murder of William King, intended to show that rifles, revolvers and ammunition were shipped into this country secretly before the drama unfolded. The slender name was Arred. 30 when King was killed.

Witnesses testified that arms were purchased in Pueblo, Canon City, Florence and Westcliffe on orders from the Florence local of the United Mine Workers of America, testimony was introduced which the prosecution claimed showed that the arms were delivered at Redwood, paid for with checks signed by David Broth, a union officer and one of the defendants in the present trial. MAN WHO 'SAW RED' ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

William M. Cleary Faces Charge of Murder of His Daughter's Husband in New York.

New City, N. Y., Dec. 17.—William M. Cleary, formerly town clerk of Haverstraw, was placed on trial here today, charged with shooting to death Eugene Newman, his daughter's childhood playmate and sweetheart, when Newman failed to inform him on July 26, last, that he and Miss Cleary had been married a few days before.

Miss Cleary Newman, 26, daughter of the defendant and widow of the man he is charged with slaying, entered the courtroom in deep mourning, when the case was called and took a seat within the railing. Both state and defense asserted that she would testify in their behalf. She has not said whether she would help defend her father or seek to have him punished as her husband's slayer. Apparently even the lawyers in the case did not know her decision.

Cleary's defense, it is believed, will be temporary emotional insanity. "I saw red," is his own statement in explanation of his alleged act.
